Record crowd attends festival

BILL BRITTON, Appomattox Town Manager, didn't mind the 'dunking.' It was all part of the fun at the 11th Annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival. (Photo by Jeff Spitzer)

Perhaps not since the armies of Lee and Grant gathered here in 1865 have there been as many people in Appomattox County as there were this weekend, for the eleventh annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival.

While it was impossible to estimate the number of visitors in town during the two-day event, the consensus among observers was that the crowds this year were larger than in any of the previous 10 festivals.

Mother Nature blessed the festival this year, with near-perfect weather both Saturday and Sunday, the type of climatic conditions which draw people out-of-doors to enjoy the autumn colors and clean air.

Combined with the excellent weather, a number of new festival attractions helped attract people to Appomattox this year.

A Norfolk and Western locomotive and safety car, a military equipment display, a "celebrity dunk tank," and helicopter rides above the festival activities all added to the established festival attractions. An antique show and demonstrations of antique furniture techniques were also very popular additions to this year's festival.

Saturday night, festival goers rocked and swayed to the rhythms of Allen Andrusky, N.E. Witt, David Goode and Alfred Wallace, members of the blue-grass band Dixie Blend; and Mike Phillips, Mike Vogel, Ted Taylor, Glenn Miller and Darrell Stewart, members of the country music band "Blackwater."

Sunday saw a large crowd of festival-goers enjoying the second day of the annual event, which was marked again by fine weather. Even at 5 p.m. Sunday, as the various artisans, craftsmen and other exhibitors packed their materials, a sizable number of people roamed the streets of downtown Appomattox.

In all, the festival was deemed an outstanding success by those who worked on it, as well as those who enjoyed the many events and displays on Saturday and Sunday.

The Festival Board members expressed their appreciation to those who helped make this years' festival a success. In a letter in this week's Times-Virginian, (see page 11) the board members specifically thanked various groups, organizations and officials which worked on this year's festival, and the people of the county who helped make the weekend a success: "For all you do to make our festival a success, the festival board wants to say a big thank you."

Bobby Carter to compete in golf regionals

Carter reached the regional tournament by shooting a 78 at last Thursday's Seminole District golf tournament. Carter's score was the third best individual score in the district. The other two individual players who will compete in the regional tournament are Mark Boley of Altavista, who shot a 75 in the district tournament, and Chris Gibson of Gretna, who shot a 77.

Brookville and Nelson County are the two teams which will represent the Seminole District in team play Thursday at the regionals. They finished one-two in the district tournament, with scores of 330 and 336, respectively. Appomattox was a close third in team play in the district tournament, finishing with a team score of 344.

The Raider golf team had a 2-3 record in dual meets this season, finished tenth of 12 teams in the Wintergreen Invitational Tournament, and third at last week's district tournament at Winton Country Club.

"The whole season was a preliminary to the district tournament," notes Coach Doug Marshall. "They saved the best for last."

Carter was joined on the Raider golf team by Chris Tolley, Freddie Lawson, Darren Tolley, Tim Almond, R.L. Waldo, Daryl Conner, Tom Cobb, and Kris Winters.

One of the highlights of the season this year was when Darren Tolley hit a hole-in-one on number six at Cedar Hills, in a team match against Brookville. In that same match, Bobby Carter recorded an eagle on the 18th hole.

Marshall, in his second year as golf coach, said "they came through in the clutch. The guys played their best golf of the season in the district tournament, but we came up just a little short."

He continues, "I think the team did well this year. Almond and Lawson showed a lot of progress, and Carter, who was the number-one man all season, was always very reliable. The whole team did a good job."

The Lions will meet at Central Fidelity Bank at 8 p.m. Thursday for annual Light Bulb Sale. Dinner will be at Country Fare following the sale at approximately 7 p.m. (Photo by Bill Sherrod.)

Wrestling slated for Tuesday

Mid - Atlantic Championship Wrestling will again come to Appomattox, as a five-card match is scheduled for Tuesday (Oct. 18) at 8:15 p.m. in the Appomattox County High School gymnasium.

The event, which is sponsored by the Appomattox Athletic Boosters Club, will feature Rufus R. Jones against Dory Fund, Jr., in a heavyweight title match.

Other matches include Greg Valentine vs. Roddy Piper, Brett Hart vs. Rick McCord, John Banello vs. Tom Lentz, and a tag-team match featuring Ninja and Magic Dragon vs. Johnny Weaver and Chauvo Guerrero.

The wresting matches, a popular event sponsored by the Athletic Boosters in Appomattox over the past several years, are a major fundraising tool for the Boosters club.

Proceeds from the matches are used to benefit the various boys' and girls' sports programs in Appomattox County schools.

Tickets to Tuesday's event are available at Appomattox Rexall Drugs, Appomattox Truck and Tractor and Robert's Convenient Market in Pamplin.

Tax tickets out

1983 tax tickets have all been mailed out. If you did not receive yours, please call 352-5200 or come by the Appomattox County Treasurer's Office.

The deadline for paying taxes is Dec. 5, 1983. 10% penalty and 10% interested will be added on Dec. 6.

Please pay early to avoid crowds and additional costs.

The Treasurer's Office will be open Nov. 19 and Dec. 3 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

As the office building is being remodeled, the temporary quarters are located in a trailer at the back of the Court House.

Next order of business will be what to do about falling leaves. My solution is: twice during the season run a lawn mower through them. Grind 'em up and they are gone with the wind.

Saw many longtime friends in Appomattox over the week-end. Sid Conner, of Collinsville, Mrs. Virgil Hudson, of Prince Edward, Specs Garbee, of Lynchburg, etc. During the Festival activities I took notes and gathered autographs. Chatted with Paul Clark, of the famous TV Clark family and young Mary Beth Blue who was Miss Bo Peep on a float. Also Miss Appomattox, lovely Dana McGrath; and the two year old Bridges lad from Charlotte who could not resist dancing when music started.

It was estimated that between 8,000 and 9,000 were here for Saturday's Festival. Congratulations to all those who planned it, staged it and contributed in any way. There were 198 starters in the Joe Sweeney distance run. I watched the finish. Many ladies participated. Richard Ferguson was the winner. Many spectators lined the route.

Sunday saw a large crowd visiting the Appomattox Historical Museum, now housed in the old jail building. Dr. C. G. O'Brien showed what a doctor's office looked like long ago. Mrs. Kepler, Mrs. Drinkard and others registered guests and guided visitors. The Banjo Exhibit formerly at the County Library is now at the Museum.

Mark Scott wins contest

Mark Scott of Appomattox was declared winner in last week's Times-Virginian Football Contest.

Scott missed accurately predicting all but one game in the contest. He will receive a check for $20 as first place winner.

Tied for second place were Wayne J. Leftwich of Madison Heights, Harvey Walker of Appomattox, Terry Falwell of Lyneburg, Pam O'Brien, Todd Pickett, Ben Marshall, Steve Marshall, John Canada, Darrell Mayberry, Dolly Mayberry, Curtis T. Mayberry Sr., Brod Bryant, Harry Carter Jr., Rodney Thompson, and Billy Thompson, all of Appomattox, and Alvin Booker of Gladsone. Each of these contestants missed accurately predicting all games in the contest but two.

Going to the tie-breaker for a winner, Dolly Mayberry, with a one-point differential, was named second place winner and she will receive a check in the amount of $10 as her prize.

The contest continues this week with full details of rules and prizes on page B-1 of this issue of the paper.

Advisory committee chairman

Zimmerman named

David Zimmerman, personal relations manager of the Armstrong Furniture plant in Appomattox, has been elected to be chairman of the General Advisory Council for Vocational Education in Appomattox County.

Zimmerman replaces Sammie Scott III, who served in this capacity during 1982-83.

Other persons elected were Winifred Nash, electronic engineer with B & W in Lynchburg, as vice-chairman along with Richard B. Carter, director of vocational education as secretary.

The General Advisory Council for Vocational Education in Appomattox County is appointed by the School Board. The advisory group is charged with the general responsibility of advising the School Board on matters related to the operations and functions of vocational education in the division, man-power needs of the area, and evaluation of the effectiveness of the various programs to provide the training needed for employment.

Other members of the General Advisory Council are Larry Barbour, manager of the Virginia Employment Office in Lynchburg; John Hix, local dairyman; Sammie Scott III, maintenance supervisor, Meredith Burda; Edna Snell, Appomattox Historical Park; Nugene Harvey, B & W; "Cat" Ballowe, president of the Appomattox County FFA Chapter; Shirley Walton, extension agent for Appomattox County. Each member serves for a term of three years except the youth representative who serves a one-year term.

Bloodmobile visit slated for Tuesday, Oct. 18

The Bloodmobile will be at Liberty Baptist Church on Tuesday, October 18, from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

Mrs. Alice C. Martin, chairman of Blood Services for Appomattox County, urges all regular donors and new donors to make a special effort to donate a unit of blood.
